DATE!

The Victor’s Pub

1 Market Street on the Camden Waterfront

The Camden County Historical Society invites you to a very special event.

The stylish Victor’s Pub on the Waterfront sets the stage for an afternoon of good food, good drink, history and nostalgia. Located on the first floor of the original “Nipper” Building, the restaurant offers free, secure parking and is handicapped accessible.

There’s something for everyone, whether you’re an RCA retiree, antique phonograph or radio enthusiast, history buff or one of countless South Jersey residents for whom the glowing “Nipper” windows have long been a symbol of home.

- $35 for CCHS members and RCA retirees, $40 all others. Cash, check, credit cards accepted.
- Includes buffet-style appetizers, entrée, non-alcoholic beverages. Cash bar; choices from the restaurant menu also available at 10% off.
- Fred Barnum, author of His Master’s Voice in America, will present “An Illustrated History of RCA”.
- Watch Building 17 take shape through vintage images projected on 20 plasma screens.
- Listen to original Victor recordings from Opera to the Jazz and Big-Band Eras through the Elvis years on a state-of-the-art sound system.
- Live demonstrations of original Victor Talking Machines and Victrolas from the Society’s museum.
- Artifacts from the original Victor Talking Machine Company and RCA will be on display.

Only 200 tickets will be sold for this special fundraising event. All proceeds help the Camden County Historical Society preserve the rich, diverse heritage of Camden County for future generations.
